All Bar Harbor Watches the Big Yachts Come Salling In.

Prospect of Some Good Racing at the Maine State Fair.

An August Meeting to be Held on the Lewiston Track.

BAR HARBOR, July 21.-The shore walk was thronged all day with crowds from the cottages and hotels watching the coming in of the Eastern Yacht Club fleet. The harbor presents a beautiful sight with the yachts of the Eastern and Seawanhaka-Corinthian deets and a great number of smaller craft. The yachts now at anchor are the flagship Fortuna, Oenone, Troubadour, Peerless, Quickstep, Victor, Rebecca, Vixen, Alga, Mystery, Papoose, Alice, Seiguner, Hanniel, Dagmur and Noaya, of the Eastern Club, and the Sea Fox, Iroquins, Medusa, Gorilla, Oneida and Rhoda of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Club. The sail from Rockland was most beautiful. No decision will be given as to the winners in the cruising time ices until the cruise is ended and the fleets eturn to Marblehead. The boats in the race are the Fortuna, Oenone, Troubadaur, Papoose, Alice and Gorilla. A meeting will be held on board the Fortuna tomorrow to lecide the time race between the 40 footers for the Carroll cup, to take place here. Gen. B. F. Butler is here on his yacht, the America. State Fair. LEWISTON, July 20 .- The patrons of the Maine State fair will witness as exciting orse trotting as has ever been seen in Maine. That some of the Maine records will be broken there is little doubt, and that' there will be a fine field of starters in all the classes, the splendia arrangement of the classes and the purses offered assures. There are sure to be a great many changes the records before the entries close for the aces at Lewiston, and when it comes to the State fair the winners will have to trot from wire to wire for their laurels. With the incements already held out all over the State many of today's green horses will have mark to drive them into the faster races. Already during the month of June several without records this spring have now placed emselves where they will be eligible in the 30 classes only, while if they start at some of the August trotting meetings it is quite cerain some of them will have to start in September in the classes below the dazzling

P. in the same race showed his ability to make another sensation as soon as an opportunity presented itself, for in his race he trotted the third mile without an imperfect step, in 2.27, as timed by several watches. In the 3-minute class, Queenle L. obtained a record of 2.334, also the bay mare Misfortune, the winner of the race, obtained the same record, while the slowest heat of the four in the slowest class of the meeting was 2.34.

At the Fairfield meeting, given June 19th and 20th, in the 3-minute class, the black stallion Von Helmont, a horse without a record, obtained a mark of 2.36½, and in the same race the black gelding Fred M., the winner, obtained a record of 2.33½. The performances in Maine thus far this season clearly show that this is to be a year of remarkable strides in the trotting horse intermarkable strides in the trotting horse intermarkable strides in the trotting horse interest of this State. In the races above mentioned these records were not made by a single phenomenal trotter, but in hard contested races with several competitors and the winners in every case were driven out by other horses which carried them from wire other horses which carried them from wire to wire. In the younger classes we hear of yearlings trotting their half miles close to a 3-minute gait, and 2-year-olds showing quarters in 35 seconds (a 2.20 clip.)

With a purse of $1,000 for the free-for-all there is sure to be a splendid field of starters. Lawrence, who is now being put in condition, is looking elegant, and his record of 2.25½ will compel him to start in the free-for-all or the stallion race, and also Elmbrook. If all goes well with C. S. P. before the entries close he will be where he may necessarily be a competior in the free-for-all.

Buildings Destroyed by Another Storm in the Mchawk Valley.

Buildings and Bridges Washer rections-The Trouble in West Virginia-A Massachusetts Man Killed by Lightning.

Reports from all through that section show that cloudbursts occurred in several localities, swelling creeks into rivers, drowning thousands of head of live stock, carrying away buildings, imperilling a number of ives, and doing great damage to farm lands. At Little Falls the storm was very severe. Rain fell in torrents, accompanied by high wind, which caused considerable destruction wind, which caused considerable destruction of property. Three bridges were carried away on the Furnace street creek, and people living on Furnace street were so alarmed that they fled from their homes for safety. On the West Shore road the embankments were badly washed, and two bridges were carried away. The damage to streets at Little Falls is estimated at $20,000.

Hamilton Jones, the stage driver between Newville and Little Falls, lost his dwelling, barn and three horses.

Charles Ellis lost his home, and his family escaped with their lives after a perilous experience.

escaped with their lives after a perilo us experience.

Luther Schuyler's house was swept away with its contents, and also the dwelling of Daniel Lighthouse.

Three bridges have been carried away be tween Indian Castle and Newville.

At Newville, where the creek flows into the Mohawk, damage was done to several buildings, including the West Shore depot.

At Hincke's Basin and several miles east of there, much damage has been done to buildings and crops of farmers. The new bridge near the Henry Petrie farm is gone.

No news can yet be obtained from Paine's Hollow, but is thought that heavy losses have occurred there. The storm was more severe south of the village and along the Indian Castle Creek.

Reports are constantly coming of the loss of animals that have been drowned by creeks overflowing their banks and buildings swept away.

ndian Falls, and the wires are down.

The rain fell in torrents at Fort Plain, and two gates and one pier of the canal aqueduct were washed out. Navigation has been suspended. By midnight the West Shore tracks at Indian Castle were covered with water to the depts of three feet in consequence of the sudden rise of the creek.

At Amsterdam the storm was the heaviest known in 10 years. Along that part of the Mohawk valley it raged with great violence from 7 to 10 o'clock, assuming the form of a cloudburst in several places.

The storm covered that section of country along and south of the Mohawk river, from Little Falls following the Otsquago creek through Vanhornville, Fort Plain, Canajo harie, taking in Indsan Castle and coming as far east as Amsterdam. General destruction resulted along the Otsquago.

The Mohawk is higher than it has been before this season.

A portion of a building, a baby's cradle, a clothes basket and chairs, were seen floating down the river past Amsterdam this morning.

The Virginia Floods.

WHEELING, W. Va., July 20 .- No estimate is yet formed of the great calamity that swept ver Little Kanawha valley. Enough is known to make it the most destructive in life and property ever in West Virginia. The scene of the greatest disaster was in Pond Creek and Tucker Creek. Pond Creek rose 23 foot in one hour. The water spread from hill to hill and called all before it. Four men took refuge in the Thames mill. The mill was crushed and one man was drowned.

Thomas Black and wife were washed from their home and perished. Thomas Hughes, wife and four children fled from home, but the water overtook them and all perished.

There was another sudden rise in the Elk and Poca rivers last night. A great quantity of logs, ties. lumber, hay, wheat and oil were destroyed. The loss will reach $100,000.

BANGOR, July 21. Charles S. Gilman, who was brought to Bangor jail last night harged with robbing and burning his store at East Corinth made a strange statement to Deputy Sheriff Reed on his way here about the method of the robbery and acknowledging his complicity but denying the act. Gilman says that last summer he entered into correspondence with parties in New York. claiming to deal in green goods, otherwise counterfeit money, and was afterwards met by a man who came to East Corinth last fall and represented himself as knowing to the correspondence. He claimed to belong to a Away-Damage to Crops in All Di- gang of burglars and safe blewers and urged man to join them. The goods would be disposed of in New York. Gilman was to receive one-fourth of the proceeds. He says he refused but afterwards the correspon dence was continued, resulting in a letter being received some time ago saying the men would be in East Corinth on the 10th or 12th of July to do the work, telling him to leave the inside door of the safe open. They did not care for the outside door. They advised the placing of a heavy insurance on his stock. The man who visited the place last fall represented himself as a safe agent, but had business with no one but Gilman. Gilman also says he went to New York in June to see the parties but found none of June to see the parties but found none of them. He says he took out the most valuable goods from the safe to cheat the burglars but did not see them and only knew of their being there by the robbery and burning. He states he went to bed at ten o'clock and knew nothing of the fire until it broke out, a statement his wife corroborated. Gilman admits having placed an additional insurance on his stock. He denies knowing anything of the safe being drilled for the inside door as the statement has been made and that he knows anything of the drilling or burning beyond what is stated above. Col. Jasper Hutchins has been engaged as his counsel. The time for the hearing has not yet been fixed.

COL. LYNCH'S CASE.

Lynch's case held a stormy session from midnight until 3.30 a.m. The members of the board had various opinions and it took them some time to agree upon a report, as they finally did. The report will be writ ten by Col. Frank Dana of Lewiston and then sent round to the other members for charmed circle.

The feat of Elmbrook at Lewiston the 25th of June, when he obtained a record of 2.26½ as a 4-year-old, was, everything considered, one of the greatest exhibitions of speed ever one of the greatest exhibitions of the original to the other members for their signature. Lynch probably disobeyed orders, Gen. Mitchell was at fault for not at once taking summary action in the case and calling Col. Lynch to account for his disobedience. Therefore, while Lynch will be mildly censured, the censure will not be nearly strong enough to require a resignation the General to a certain degree. The board expresses the hope that this affair will reund to to the good of the militia and also add greatly to its discipline and usefulness.

Steamer St. Nichols, of Savannah, Ga., with 500 colored excursionists on board, ran into a closed drawbridge over the St. Augustine creek at 9 60 clock Saturday night, demolishing the forward part of the steamer, killing two women and injuring 28 men and women, some of whom will die.

Friday night the jewelry store of H. J. Bodwell in Lynn, Mass., was entered by burglars. Trays were removed and forty-five diamond rings, two hundred stone rings, and every gold, silver and filled watch was secured by the thieves. A large quantity of plated silverware was also taken together with about $175 in cash. The burglars got away with about $12,000 and left behind only a few tools.

In speaking of this subject Mrs. Harrison continued: "We are here for four years. I do not look beyond that, as many things may occur in that time; but I am very anxious to see the family of the President provided for properly, and while I am here I hope to be able to get the present building put into good condition. Very few people understand to what straits the President's family has been put at times for lack of accommodations. Washington. July 19.

The Republican National Executive Committee, while disclaiming any jurisdiction in local party action or control in the various States, has feit it to be a duty to consider the causes of dissatisfaction in Virginia.

After conference with the recognized representatives of the different elements of the party in that State, and finding all of them sincerely desirous of party unity and success, we approve of the call for a State convention to be held at Norfolk on the 22d of August, 1889, signed by William Mahone as chairman.

It gives ample assurance of free and open conested on suspicion of being the Whitechapel Mahone as chairman.

It gives ample assurance of free and open conventions in precinct, county, city and State. We ask all Republicans and all friends of protection to American industries in Virginia to unite under this call for action now and success in November.

We Want Creat Inagua. WASHINGTON, July 20 .- In diplomatic cir cles the impression is growing that the United States are making preparations for a controversy over a small island under the jurisdiction of the Haytian government. Ever since the proposition was made to construct a canal at Panama the United States has been endeavoring to get possession of the island in question, which is situated in the immediate vicinity of St. Nicholas Mole, and is down on the naval charts as Great Inagua. A navel station on the latter island has been the ambition of the government for many years. It would not only give the United States a position of vantage at the northern entrance to Windward Pass, flowing between Hayti and Cuba, but it would enable our government to scrutinize all commerce going through the pass to Panama beyond. This most desirable location for a naval station has not]been overlooked by France, who also has an interest in the Panama canal, and the French government has been figuring on outbidding our government for the purchase or possession of it. cles the impression is growing that the
